Paradise Cove Beach Café Hosts 'Day of Hope' for Those Impacted by the Palisades and Eaton Fires

Malibu, CA – Paradise is calling—to all those impacted by the Palisades and Eaton fires. Paradise Cove Beach Café in Malibu is opening its doors on Saturday, March 15, from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM for a Day of Hope—a community gathering dedicated to healing, remembrance, and resilience.

This special event is not a fundraiser but a heartfelt gift to those affected by the fires, including residents, first responders, and their families. Guests will have the opportunity to share stories, reflect on what once was, look forward to rebuilding a brighter future, and of course, is free to all those affected.

“This day is about community,” said Bob Morris, founder of Paradise Cove Beach Cafe. “It’s a time to come together, tell our stories, shed a few tears, have a bite to eat, and support each other as we move forward. We want everyone impacted by these devastating fires to know that they are not alone.”

The event will take place on the beach at the iconic Paradise Cove Beach Cafe in Malibu, offering a peaceful setting by the ocean for reflection and connection. Please register for the event at www.paradisecovemalibu.com, and all who were affected by the fires are welcome to attend...
